

Rhode Island Genealogical Society

Student Member Application

Membership spans one year from the date of application

The Rhode Island Genealogical Society offers an entry level membership for students interested in exploring their Rhode Island roots and preserving their family histories. Our Student membership includes:

- Online subscription to our quarterly journal, Rhode Island Roots and the annual Gleanings from town records
- Access to a digital archive of issues of Roots back to 1975
- Workshops and lectures held throughout the year
- Discounts on books published by RIGS
- Links to resources, family queries and a network of more than 600 professional and amateur genealogists.

The Student membership is open to individuals ages 14 to 20, who are currently enrolled in a secondary school or enrolled full-time or part-time in a college, university or other post-secondary program.

Student membership is $15 per year and is renewable until the year the member turns 21.

To join:

- Visit rigensoc.org/Join RIGS/Join Online, or
- Complete and mail this application with a check for $15 to: RIGS, P.O. Box 211, Hope, RI 02831

For more information, contact the RIGS Membership Chair at membership@rigensoc.org.

First Name	Middle Initial	Last Name
Street Address or PO Box
City, State ZIP
Telephone	Email (Required)
Birth Date (mm/dd/yyyy)	School where you are currently enrolled:

Please mail this application along with your check for your $15 dues payment to:

Rhode Island Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 211, Hope, RI 02831

Revised: 31-Jul-2026